RUHR VALLEY IS BLASTED BY WAVES OF BRITISH BOMBERS

TARGETS HIT IN HOLLAND AND FRANCE

Night of Terror Visited on Occupied Countries as Russia Reports Nazis Thrown Back

DESERT ARMY CRUSHED

BY ROGER D. GREENE

Associated Press War Editor
Waves of British warplanes, perhaps 450 strong, visited another night of terror, death and destruction upon Germany's industrial valley of the Ruhr before dawn today and also struck at targets in Nazi-occupied France and Holland.

Eighteen RAF bombers were acknowledged missing from the overnight assaults, which followed a British radio broadcast urging people of France to evacuate the coastal areas from the Belgian frontier to the Pyrenees.

The broadcast warned of impending Allied operations of "capital importance" to be executed at the most opportune moment.

In the Russian campaign, Soviet dispatches reported that German tanks, troops and planes attacking Russia's five-day-old offensive against Russia's long-besieged Black Sea naval base of Sevastopol, in the Crimea, had been thrown back in fierce battles in two sectors.

By contrast, German field headquarters asserted that Nazi infantry supported by heavy artillery and strong air squadrons, stormed Soviet defenses and a heavy concentration of Soviet tanks and repulsed Russian counter-attacks with "bloody losses."

Dispatches to Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, said the Germans were suffering terrific casualties in the new drive after losing 50,000 men since the siege began seven months ago.

On the North African battlefield, British headquarters reported that the British 13th Army Corps, which had been fighting since the start of the campaign, had been ordered to move westward to the refuge of the Chinese front, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese armies were said to have thrown a strategic Japanese victory into reverse.

A Chungking military spokesman said Chinese troops wiped out a Japanese invasion force which had gained a foothold at Chusien, key rail center of western China, and regained possession of the city.

LATE WAR BULLETINS

London, July 9.—(P)—A Royal Canadian Air Force fighter squadron has arrived in North Africa to help other British imperial and Free French airmen knock the Axis out of the desert skies, authorities disclosed today.

Tokyo (From Japanese Broadcasts), June 9.—(P)—The Emperor Hirohito today for a report on the war.

London, June 9.—(P)—British and American air force units have arrived in China, Reuters reported today in a dispatch from Chungking.

Sydney, Australia, June 9.—(P)—The bodies of four Japanese recovered from the wreckage of mid-gut submarines which attacked Sydney harbor, were cremated here today with full military honors.

London, June 9.—(P)—Air Chief Marshal A. T. Harris suggested today that 10,000 bombers a night could fly over Germany and that many might fly directly from America "with formidable bomb loads."

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts), June 9.—(P)—A new British air raid on Taranto, mainland naval base on the foot of the Italian boot, was reported by the Italian high command communique today, but it said the only damage was by fire ashore.

London, June 9.—(P)—The admiralty announced today that the British submarine Turbulent had sunk one Italian destroyer, three medium-sized supply ships and a small merchant ship in the central Mediterranean.

Sharp Retrenchment in WPA Program Inevitable

Jap Fleet Is Speeding to Home Waters

Powerful Armada From Land of Rising Sun Limping Toward Horizon

LOSSES RECAPITULATED

Pearl Harbor, June 9.—(P)—Somewhere in the vast Pacific today the remnants of a once proud and powerful fleet from the land of the rising sun limped beaten and broken toward the horizon of the setting sun.

Last Thursday morning it was that the mightiest naval force Japan ever sent across the international dateline—reportedly the bulk of that country's sea power—launched an all-out attack on Midway Island, America's westernmost bastion in the Hawaiian group.

And Saturday what was left of the fleet after a relentless pounding by United States sea and air forces, "hollered uncle" and slunk away to seek hiding in home waters.

But before contact was lost, official report said Uncle Sam had dealt this bitter punishment to the enemy:

At least three warships sunk, eleven more heavily damaged, and the accompanying air arm practically wiped out.

Against this liquidation of Japanese sea power, announced United States losses were one destroyer sunk, one airplane carrier damaged and some planes destroyed.

Official reports listed these casualties to the enemy in addition to the disastrous blow against its air arm:

Two (possibly three) aircraft carriers and one destroyer sunk.

One aircraft carrier (possibly two), three battleships, four (possibly six) cruisers and three transports damaged.

Thus, whatever dream Japan may have had for the ultimate aim of the invaders—was turned into a nightmare of destruction.

Jersey City, N. J., June 9.—(P)—The 18,134-ton passenger liner Gripsholm arrived today from Gothenburg, Sweden, a day late on her mission to exchange Japanese and American diplomats and nationals.

On the pier was the baggage of Japanese, who will board the ship for its first exchange voyage to Lourenco Marques, Portuguese East Africa. Americans from Japan will board the ship there for the return voyage to the United States.

Jesse S. Saugstad, state department representative, said the Gripsholm would sail Thursday for a 28 to 29-day journey to Portuguese East Africa with about 1,500 Japanese who will be exchanged from American diplomats and nationals held in Japan.

There were 59 aliens, Swedes, Norwegians and Finns, on the ship, which arrived shortly before 9 a. m. (EWT).

Many of the returning Americans were reluctant to discuss conditions in the Scandinavian countries they had come from, saying that the state department had advised them not to talk for publication upon arrival.

State Funeral For Heydrich

Berlin (From German Broadcasts), June 9.—(P)—Adolf Hitler termed Reinhard Heydrich, assassinated Gestapo official, "one of our martyrs" today at a state funeral shortly after Heinrich Himmler, head of the secret police declared "it is our holy duty to avenge" the protector of Bohemia and Moravia.

Hitler made an unannounced appearance at the funeral, leaving his headquarters on the Russian front, to confer on the slain No. 2 Gestapo chief "the highest award of the German order."

He placed a wreath on the coffin and embraced Heydrich's two sons before leaving the funeral hall.

Dr. Emil Hacha, president of the Czech protectorate, and his entire cabinet, arrived for the funeral in a special train.

Rationing May be Extended To Coffee, Tea and Clothing

No Danger That Country Will Lack Necessary Staples, Officials Say

A SCARCITY OF WOOL

Washington, June 9.—(P)—An official forecast of America's food and clothing situation lists coffee, tea and cocoa as likely to be rationed and clothing as an eventual rationing possibility.

The forecast, by Joseph L. Weinert, deputy director of the War Production Board division of supply, was given at a press conference yesterday. It pictured the commodity situation as follows:

Rationing of coffee, tea and cocoa is likely. Bananas will be scarce. Fish supplies will be limited by the submarine hazard to fishing fleets, and lease-lend shipments will reduce the amount of pork available. But there is no danger that the country will lack necessary staples.

Rationing of clothing probably can be avoided this year, but the WPA is unwilling to make predictions beyond that time. Wool may be forbidden in some types of (Turn to Page Nine)

Three Lines Pumping Fuel To Seaboard

Washington, June 8.—(P)—Three pipe lines which previously conveyed gasoline westward from the Atlantic coast are being reversed to bring the fuel east. E. B. Swanson, research director for the Petroleum Coordinator's Office, reports.

Swanson assembled at the request of Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) data on the reversal, together with information on the availability of barges and tank cars to bring the vital fuel into the rationed east coast areas. The senator presented the material to the senate.

The three pipe lines mentioned by Swanson were the Tuscarora from Bayonne, N. J., to Midland, Pa., near the Ohio-Pennsylvania border; via Harrisburg; the Susquehanna Pipe Line, from Philadelphia to Cleveland; and the Key-Stone Line, from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh via Reading and Harrisburg.

NO DECISION ON GASOLINE AT PRESENT

Postponement of Fuel Rationing Until Survey of Crude Rubber Situation is Predicted

ESTIMATES ARE VARIED

Washington, June 9.—(P)—Postponement of any nationwide gasoline rationing until a comprehensive survey is made of the country's available scrap rubber was predicted in congressional quarters today.

Senate Democratic Leader Barkley (D-Ky.) said he understood such a survey was being contemplated and other informed legislators added that it was likely President Roosevelt would await the results before deciding whether it was necessary to put all private automobiles on short fuel rations.

Barkley told reporters there were all kinds of estimates on the amount of rubber that could be reclaimed from the scrap pile, ranging from the 10,000,000 ton estimate of one big business executive down to a war production board expert's guess that only 700,000 tons could be obtained.

Meanwhile, Price Administrator Leon Henderson reported to a senate committee that it was likely that slightly more than 300,000 tons would be reclaimed in 1942. Henderson informed a special committee investigating the gasoline situation, headed by Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) that 6,000,000 tons probably could be made from this amount.

Henderson expressed the opinion that no combination of tire conservation measures which did not include nationwide gasoline rationing could hope to avert "a serious transportation crisis."

He said these capped tires, made of 74 per cent reclaimed rubber, were good for only 6,000 miles of wear at speeds of less than 40 miles an hour.

While asserting it was possible that sufficient synthetic rubber would be produced in 1944 to permit (Turn to Page Nine)

THREE AMBULANCES FROM EASTERN STAR

Pittsburgh, June 9.—(P)—Three ambulances, instead of the one originally planned, were presented to the American Red Cross today by the Pennsylvania Order of the Eastern Star which opened its 48th annual convention last night.

Grand Worthy Matron Jane Y. Sellers of Wilkensburg, said the order was able to provide three ambulances for war work because contributions from its members greatly exceeded expectations.

Approximately 1,064 voting delegates and 500 other members are here for the convention.

BELL OBSEQUIES TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Washington, June 9.—(P)—Funeral services will be held today for Brian Bell, 52, chief of the Washington bureau of the Associated Press, who died of heart disease yesterday at his home in nearby Arlington, Va.

The services will be conducted at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's Episcopal church, Arlington. Burial will be in the Columbia Gardens cemetery, Arlington.

Bell, whose passing brought expressions of sorrow from thousands of persons in all walks of life throughout the country, was a first league baseball player, one of his favorite diversions. Twelve hours later a second attack, in his home, proved fatal.

Pittsburgh, June 9.—(P)—Assistant District Attorney Jacob Kelson told a jury of seven women and five men today psychiatrists will be called to testify at the trial of 13-year-old Vincent James Rocco on charges of fatally shooting his nine-year-old sister as she slept.

Defense Attorney Louis Little had said he would seek the boy's acquittal on grounds that he was "insane, asleep or lacking in legal capacity."

Kelson asked the jury to convict the lad, reputed to be the youngest person ever placed on trial on a murder charge in Allegheny county. (Turn to Page Nine)

RURAL SALVAGE DRIVE IS WAY OVER QUOTA

Harrisburg, June 9.—(P)—Enough metal scrap to build two battleships, a cruiser and four destroyers were collected from Pennsylvania farms last week in a rural salvage drive.

Thirty-three counties topped their quotas to help boost the total contribution to 47,775 tons, more than 7,500 tons over the goal. Lancaster county headed the list with 5,233 tons, although its quota was only 2,112 tons. Farmers also contributed 525 tons of rubber.

Two Training Blimps Crash On Test Trip

Three Bodies Recovered With Nine Navy Men Still Missing

BUT ONE IS RESCUED

Lakehurst, N. J., June 9.—(P)—Coast guards recovered today three bodies and wreckage from one of two navy training blimps lost in what apparently was a mid-air collision over the Atlantic ocean while on an unexplained "experimental mission."

Only one survivor was known. Still missing are nine of the 13 naval and civilian occupants of the GI and the smaller L-2 when they set out last night from the naval air station at Lakehurst. The airships plunged into the ocean about four miles off Manasquan, which is 16 miles northeast of Lakehurst.

Sheriff Lewis Menninger of Ocean county reported recovery of the three bodies in the gondola of the L-2, dragged ashore at Point Pleasant beach.

Among the bodies was that of Lt. Cmdr. Clinton S. Rounds, of Toms River, senior officer aboard the two craft and a survivor of the dirigible's crash landing off the California coast in 1935.

The navy declined to discuss the mission. All occupants of the blimps were equipped with life-jackets for use should the craft be forced down on the water. They were about 400 feet above the sea when they apparently collided.

REDUCTION OF 175,000 ANTICIPATED

Employment to 400,000 a Month Would Be Possible In Appropriation Bill Sent to Committee

STATISTICS ARE OFFERED

Washington, June 9.—(P)—A $280,000,000 WPA bill designed to give employment to 400,000 persons a month starting July 1, was sent to the house by its appropriation committee today with warning that a sharp retrenchment program was inevitable.

In an accompanying report, the committee said that the appropriation, recommended only two weeks ago by President Roosevelt, would mean a reduction of 375,000 persons from the average of the current fiscal year.

With WPA employment this month estimated at 750,000, the committee said that 400,000 figure would mean a "precipitous increase of 350,000 immediately or a gradual decline which would force employment far below 400,000 later. The report asserted:

"During the fiscal year 1942 with estimated unemployment of 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 and one-half of that number estimated to be eligible for work projects administration employment, the WPA with estimated employment of 400,000 under the funds available would provide employment for between one-fifth and one-sixth of the total unemployed, and between one-fourth and one-fifth of those eligible for WPA projects."

The committee said that "casual thinking" might lead to the belief that unemployment would almost disappear with the war effort. But it pointed out that civilian goods production had fallen sharply, industry is disinclined to hire older workers and many persons cannot get to war jobs.

Statistics presented to the house showed:

About 1,200,000 women entered the labor market and took jobs in March.

The average age of WPA workers has risen from 42.4 in November, 1937, to 46.4 last February.

Reductions in the appropriation may mean the closing of some regional field offices, particularly the state headquarters.

In seven years, the WPA had provided work for more than 8,000,000 different persons.

CIO Bid For Peace Ignored

BY JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
Washington, June 9.—(P)—The CIO's counter proposal for achieving organic labor unity has met with an AFL silence that does not mean consent.

Informed sources said AFL officials had rejected a suggestion for a joint meeting of CIO and AFL executive bodies, but probably would refrain from any comment which might impair the existing functional unity inspired by the war effort.

AFL leaders were authoritatively represented as believing such a joint meeting would be impractical. Membership of the combined boards would exceed 50 persons. Moreover, the recent turn of events in the feud between CIO President Philip Murray and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, was viewed on both sides as another deferment of the day when the two big labor organizations would be one again.

Registration For Canning Sugar Is On

Warren county residents who desire to apply for permits to purchase sugar for canning purposes may do so now at the court house here, it was announced today by members of the county rationing board. Facilities have been made available in the front corridor of the court house and daily hours are maintained from 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1:30 to 5:00 p. m. except Saturday.

Through the efforts of the Warren County Defense Council, volunteer workers have been obtained to conduct the registration for the entire summer period, or until the canning season is ended.

These volunteer workers, as well as rationing board members, serve without pay. It was pointed out. It was suggested that due to the large number of people to be served by the sugar rationing committee, the public be patient as possible, remembering the workers are friends and neighbors serving as a patriotic duty in this emergency.

Volunteers wishing to aid in this registration have been requested to call the office of the Warren County Defense Council, 3045. It was stated that additional volunteers are needed.

ISSUES WARNING

Police Chief George F. Haein today warned residents of the borough against the practice of throwing frass in the street after cutting their lawns. He pointed out that a borough ordinance prohibits this practice and that a fine is provided for violators.

TRY WOODEN TIRES

Wooden tires, made by a Clintonville cabinet maker, are in service on a car used by Lewis Dairies of Grove City to make call-backs and collections. The company said that if the tires prove successful, they will be used on other motor equipment.

HURT IN FALL

Elmer Crawford, 34, of East Smethport, is recovering at the Kane Summit Hospital from injuries received Friday afternoon on an oil lease near Mt. Jewett in a 30-foot fall from the top of a derrick. He received a fractured pelvis and bruises about the body.

AIR RAID SIGNAL

Sharp blasts from whistles of two Kane manufacturing plants will be the signals for residents of that community to blackout their houses and places of business in case of air raids or blackout rehearsals, it has been announced.

NAZARENE SCHOOL

The daily vacation Bible school at the Church of the Nazarene opened Monday morning with an enrollment of 95, that number being increased to 116 this morning. There are classes of interest for all from four to sixteen years and it is still possible to join the group, according to announcement by the faculty.

MANY AT SCHOOL

The daily vacation Bible school being conducted through this week and next in the First Baptist church has an enrollment of 94, it is stated today. Cooperating in this project are the centrally located parishes, First Methodist, First Presbyterian, First Evangelical, First Baptist and Trinity Memorial Episcopal.

FEW VEHICLES LEFT

According to a report of about 150 bicycles having been registered last Saturday in the final day of registering in the borough, only an estimated 100 or slightly greater number of owners are believed to be still around the community without the needed permit, it was learned today. Police are now enforcing the new regulations.

LUTHERAN PICNIC

All members and friends of the First Lutheran church are being urged to turn out for the annual congregational picnic to be held Thursday at Island Park in Youngville. This will be the last opportunity for many to greet Pastor Edward K. Rogers informally before he leaves for service as army chaplain, since no parish or public farewell has been planned in his honor.

PLANT AT KANE

Announcement was made Saturday afternoon through the Kane Chamber of Commerce that a branch of the Speer Carbon Company, a large St. Marys corporation manufacturing carbon products, has leased a building in Kane for manufacturing purposes. Equipment for the new plant will arrive in Kane within a few days and work is expected to start about October 1.

SCHOOL TONIGHT

All interested are reminded that the first class of the borough's auxiliary police school begins this evening at eight o'clock at the high school. James Springer, high school teacher and former highway patrolman, is the instructor. The course is under the supervision of Police Chief George Haein and Officer Michael Evan. Additional enrollments will be received tonight.

First Rules For Blackout Are Reported

Traffic rules for the "dawn-to-dusk" practice blackouts in the state on June 23, 24 and 25 were announced in Harrisburg today by the State Council of Defense.

Warren county is included with other counties in the western portion of the state which will have their blackout in the final day.

The blackouts will consist of two parts—partial from dusk to dawn and complete for a period of 30 minutes. Vehicular and pedestrian traffic may move during the partial blackouts, the council ruled.

Only emergency vehicles will be required, however, to be clearly marked in white with the letter "E" not less than 12 inches in height and must have lights dimmed.

During the complete blackout all other vehicular traffic, including buses and bicyclists, must park at the side of the road with lights out. Pedestrians will not be allowed on the streets.

Farm Workers Being Sought By Committee

As a result of instructions received by Arthur L. Page, of Columbus, chairman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture County War Board, A. H. Bradley, of Akeley, has been named chairman of the County Labor Farm Committee, it was announced today.

The function of this board is to guarantee an adequate supply of farm labor to the producing farmers of Warren county. Recognizing that locally, as well as nationally, the farmer has lost workers both to the armed service and to industry, the committee has assumed the obligation of seeking all sources of possible available farm labor, it was stated.

People of the county in Warren county are being asked to volunteer for war service on the farms. "This is an army that needs you," the committee stated today. "It hasn't any special uniforms, you won't wear any medals, the only thing you'll be in the fight, you'll know it by the time you're through, too—because you'll be tough. If you are a high school student and do not believe it, ask your coach to meet you."

Those interested are requested to call at the United States Employment service, 225 Pennsylvania avenue, west, Warren, and enroll for farm work. Farmers are requested to see their local committee as listed below if there is none in their vicinity or if their names are known to the U. S. Employment service.

Committee members are as follows: A. H. Bradley, Akeley, chairman; F. E. Miller, Warren, secretary; C. F. H. Wuesthoff, of Warren, vocational adviser; J. L. Connelly, Warren, employment service member; E. G. Brown, Bear Lake, and H. J. Long, Pittsfield.

District advisory members are N. E. Dodd, R. D. 1, Columbus; Hubert L. Johnson, Bear Lake; Mike Zurkan, Sugar Grove; Ray E. Gruber, R. D. 2, Warren; M. M. Glendening, Akeley; Carl G. Peterson, R. D. 1, Russell; D. L. McGuire, R. D. 1, Warren; Leon D. Whiteley, R. D. 1, Spring Creek; Charles F. Camp, R. D. 1, Torpedo; A. L. Brown, R. D. 1, Torpedo; and John F. Schuler, Corydon.

BOYS IN THE SERVICE

Word has been received that Private Don Keller is now stationed at the air base at Alamogordo, N. M. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Keller and enlisted in the Army Air Corps last August.

Corporal Robert Green, with Warren soldiers at Camp Livingston, La., is home for a furlough with relatives and friends.

Ray G. Swanson, private first class in the U. S. Army Air Corps, is here for a furlough with Gerald L. Coates, 120 Frank street. Former Hoff Business College student, Private Swanson is at present unassigned.

A large number of additional stores are expected to join the ranks of those closing Wednesday at 1 p. m., as a result of a merchants' meeting held Monday morning at the Warren Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting, which was attended by members of the retail committee of the Chamber of Commerce, representatives of the shoe stores, representatives of the large chain stores, and a few other stores, discussed all angles of the Wednesday closing and reached a decision to continue the experiment.

All the stores which were closed last Wednesday are expected to close again tomorrow. In addition to these, the shoe stores in the central part of town, including Danielson Carter, Brown's Shoe Shop, the Lester Shoe Co., and the Triangle Shoe Co., will also add the 1 p. m. closing policy. Finally, the G. C. Murphy Co., S. S. Kresge, and the Woolworth store, all have agreed to cooperate in the same manner.

On another page of this issue of the Times-Mirror appears an advertisement confirming the new summer hours, with a complete list of the names of those stores which are participating. The general public is earnestly requested to familiarize itself as promptly as possible with the new hours, as the majority of stores in central Warren, together with many outlying stores, will definitely be closed Wednesday afternoons throughout the months of June, July, and August; and to plan to do its Wednesday shopping in the hours from opening time till 1 p. m.

At a little later date the retail committee of the Chamber hopes to work out community promotional plans which will make Wednesday morning one of the outstanding sales days of the week.

Just SCRAPS

Collection Day No. 2 was a real success! Of course no enormous outpouring of scrap, such as took place on April 18, was expected, since the new collection was not an every-street, every-home affair, but merely covered those homes which notified the Committee that they had salvage material. In other words, it was a mere "mop-up" after the first big collection.

Everything functioned smoothly and efficiently. About fifteen of the ever-faithful Boy Scouts, under the direction of Cal Hall, lent their services and worked steadily until the job was done. Particular thanks are due to Ernest Johnson, Scoutmaster of Troop 7, whose work and effort played a big part in making Collection Day No. 2 a success. The patriotic spirit of those who donated the use of trucks is also very deeply appreciated by the Salvage Committee. These included: Warren County Dairy, United Lumber & Supply, Valentine and Son, the Borough Street Department, and Barnhart Davis. All of these had also participated in the original house-to-house campaign.

A few snags and misunderstandings arose as a result of the day's activities. Some places were missed because they failed to notify Salvage Headquarters that they had material for collection. In addition to this, a number of householders put out paper and magazines for the collectors in spite of the announcement that no more paper could be handled for the present.

If you were one of those whose material was not collected Saturday, all you have to do is call Salvage Headquarters 3048, and it will be taken care of. Do NOT include any paper or paper products in your material.

The final results for the day showed that from five to seven tons of usable scrap metal were collected and about one-half ton of rags. These won't make the Japs feel a bit better some of these warm mornings when the sun comes up like thunder out of China 'cross the bay.

The Salvage Committee would like Warren County trout and bass fishermen, especially the former, to help the Salvage campaign by acting as "spotters." See the Sports Page for full details.

Investigate Two Reports Of Hold-ups

Officials today are investigating reports of two alleged armed hold-ups which have occurred in the vicinity of Russell in the past two days.

According to state motor police and county officials, the first of two hold-ups is said to have occurred Sunday morning along the Big Four road when Merle Gates, of Russell, reported that four men held him up at the point of a gun and took $16 which he had with him. Gates said he had gone out to pick ferns when the hold-up occurred.

The second hold-up was reported yesterday morning about 8:30 o'clock by A. J. Chamberlain, of Daugherty Run, who said that three men answering the description given by Gates held him up and took $26.

Chamberlain told officials he had gone to Russell with a load of milk. On his return, he picked up the three men who were hitch-hiking. After riding for some distance the men ordered Chamberlain to stop and give them his money. The men then disappeared into the woods, he said.

Arrangements For Camp Are Completed

Major B. E. Flinn, local Salvation Army Corps officer, has received word that official approval has been given the project of conducting a divisional Salvation Army camp at nearby Camp Cornplanter during this summer season.

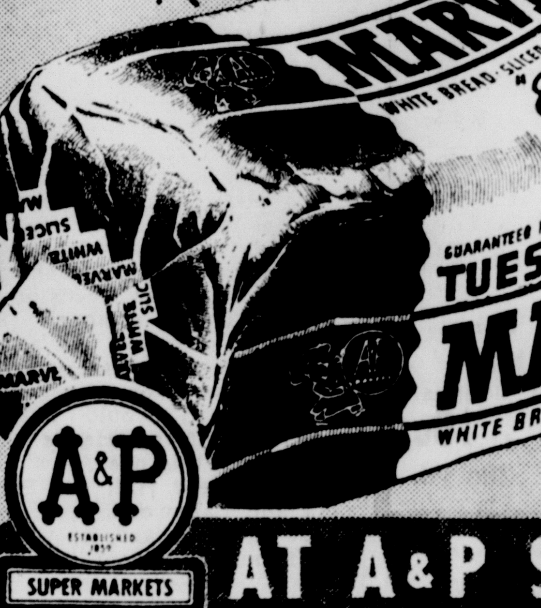

The proposed camping program will be launched the first of July and will include special periods for boys, girls, bands, cadets and youth fellowships units.

Operations will be under the direction of Major Charles McNally, of Pittsburgh, division youth supervisor, with 36 different corps of the Western Pennsylvania Division sending delegations. Included in this division are the Pittsburgh and Erie areas, Warren and vicinity and southward to the West Virginia state line.

Announcement of dates for the various periods, camp personnel and other details will be made public in the near future.

"AFTER HOURS!"

Yesterday there was published in the news columns the results of the War Bond sales in Warren and Forest counties for the month of May, and with these figures the projected quotas for June and the following months in order to provide the funds to supply our fighting men.

The spirit which prompted the residents of Warren and Forest counties to do their full part in buying War Savings Bonds and Stamps can perhaps be emphasized by the following, entitled "After Hours", which was written by M. J. Weir, copy director of Lord & Thomas, a New York advertising agency. A reading of this story is an inspiration to anyone who recognizes the need for every individual's cooperation in the war effort:

Don't get me wrong—I'm just an ordinary guy. I'm not trying to pose as an expert on the moulding of public opinion. I'm not talking big about what I'd do if it was my job to whip up the country on the war effort.

I'm talking as an average citizen. I'm saying, not what I'd like to tell them, but what I'd like to be told. Soon.

Because I'm concerned, and I've been concerned, about my reaction to all that's been happening. Sure, I'm buying bonds. I'm paying taxes. I'm doing with less sugar.

But deep down inside, down where it really matters, something hasn't taken place yet that I feel ought to take place. I'm all a welter of confusion there. It keeps me scratching my head and mopping my brows when I know I ought to be clenching my fists.

You understand? It's like this:

I want to be told not to buy Defense Stamps or Defense Bonds. I want to be told to buy Victory Stamps or War Bonds. I want to be told—not to remember Pearl Harbor. I want to be told to take Tokyo, to bomb Berlin, to raze Rome.

I want to be told—not to do my part to keep Nazism or Fascism from these shores. I want to be told to do my part to spread Americanism to all shores.

I want to be told—not to keep our world and our way of life from being lost. I want to be told to help build a new world and a better way of life.

I want a positive program instead of a passive one. I want something to fight for—I'm sick and tired of having only something to fight against. I'm hungry for something to get pepped up about—I'm repelled from having only something to fear. I want something to do—not just to wait for.

It hasn't been so long since the last war that I forget what happened then. I remember the parades and the speeches and the ringing slogans. Then we fought to make the world safe for democracy. We bought Liberty Bonds. We sang that the Yanks were coming.

We set out to avenge Belgium—not just to remember it. We made a vow that we'd reach Berlin or bust. We toyed with plans to hang the Kaiser. We warned the Hun to "keep your head down, Fritz-boy!" We girded ourselves for a Crusade—we didn't close the doors for a siege.

We hated the Kaiser—we didn't laugh at him. We likened his upturned handlebars to the devil's horns—not to anything so harmless and pathetic as the famous hirsute prop Charlie Chaplin plasters on his upper lip. We saw nothing to be amused about in his vain and pompous posturings—as we do today in Mussolini's puffing strut. We didn't pin our hopes on the defective eyesight of our enemy.

We planted war gardens. We poured our money into war chests. We had gasless Sundays and yelled "Slacker!" at anyone who dared to venture out in his Winton or Hupmobile or Stearns-Knight. We churned one pound of butter into two pounds and did it with as much will as if we were turning out ammunition. We took the offensive psychologically long before we took it physically. And if we hadn't taken it physiologically, we'd never have developed the drive to take it physically. And don't tell me we can't do the same now.

I want to sing that today we control our own destiny, tomorrow the destiny of the whole world. I want to sail against Germany, against Italy, against Japan. If they can sail against us and our allies, why can't we sail against them?

I want to construct a greater America—prosperity sphere. I want to correct the mistakes of the Versailles treaty unstar as they allowed all this to happen. I want to win "lebensraum" for the democratic way of life.

I'm fed up with singing plaintive songs—I want to sing battle songs. Don't tell me there'll be bluebirds over the white cliffs of Dover. To hell with bluebirds. Tell me there'll be cultures and a deathly silence over Berchtesgaden.

I'm bored with keeping a stiff upper lip—I want to develop a stiff uppercut. I'm tired of being made to feel sad. I want the experience—the purging, marshalling, driving experience—of being made to feel mad. FIGHTING mad!

You get me?

With out-of-town picnics definitely curtailed this summer, there'll be many of the old-fashioned lawn variety—at home.

First time the town's been dressed up since old home week about thirty years ago!

Thus far June is living up to her reputation for rare days!

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

(Third In A Series)
By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Any constant visitor to Congress in the six months since we were blasted into World War II would certainly have noticed two things: (1) That Congress is as jittery as a mother hen with the shadow of a hawk flying over her brood; (2) That while the pre-war period was marked by the energetic activities of more than a fistful of free-eating factional leaders, the war so far hasn't produced one outstanding Congressional leader.

To take the second matter up first, I have no intention of detracting from the efforts put forth by Sen. Harry S. Truman and his committee's investigation of the conduct of the war; Sen. Harry F. Byrd, and his special committee's fight to keep down non-war expenditures; of Rep. Carl Vinson and his House naval affairs committee; of Rep. Clarence Cannon of Missouri, who, as chairman of the House appropriations committee, has invariably given a thorough analysis of all proposed expenditures; of young Rep. Albert Gore, of Tennessee, who fought so hard for the Baruch anti-inflation program.

These men and others have worked hard, but none has emerged with Congressional laurels that would cause him to be pointed to as new wartime leader on Capitol Hill.

AS FOR the jitters, they are easily explainable and may almost entirely be attributed to the fact that this is a nation yearning for a third of the Senate and all of the House having to face the voters in summer primaries and a general election in November.

I think most observers on the Hill are sympathetic to the plight of Congress. Six months after Pearl Harbor, the Congressmen are facing a legislative log-jam composed of nearly all the regular appropriation bills, that all-important tax bill, the 36 billion dollar or more war department appropriation, the WPA appropriation, the final deficiency appropriations bill, the small business relief measure, to mention just the outstanding. That ordinarily would keep Congress busy for more than a regular session, yet all of those legislative hurries have to be taken before Congress can get back home for appropriations.

THE criticism that followed the Congressional pension and X-card gasoline ration matters brought a counter-blast from Congress the like of which has rarely been heard. Some of it was sane, some of it pure petulance.

One Congressman got so far ahead the other day that he wrote into the record a long defense of Congress' attitude toward the fortification of Guam, a criticism which I haven't heard for months and one which no one put forward very seriously.

At another time a Senate leader declared on the floor he wanted it noted that Congress had given the administration everything it had asked for—the first record I believe of any Congress priding itself on having rubber stamped administrative recommendations.

Plans for the Warren city baseball league were finally completed at a meeting last evening and everything is in readiness for the opening game scheduled for next Tuesday evening. Teams entered are the Elks, 99's, Crew Levicks and Conewago Crew.

IN 1932

Ray Stein, who was this week elected manager of the State College baseball team for next year, is spending the summer in Warren. He returned last evening in company with his father, E. L. Stein, Miss Edith Stein and Miss Mary Stein.

Park Simpson, local contractor, will start a crew of men to work tomorrow morning on construction of a new gasoline service station to be erected on the vacant lot between the Times-Mirror building and Riches Dining Car. It will be operated by Max Chapman and Chester Dailey.

Students of the Hoff Business College enjoyed a picnic yesterday at the Outing Club, with the losers in recent speed typing contests acting as hosts to the winners. The evening was concluded with dancing.

In a 15-inning mushball game at the West Side last evening, the Style Shop defeated the East Side Service Station, 11 to 10. Christensen pitched for the Style Shop and Dorrance for the Service Station.

The General Concrete Products Company will launch their large steel barge in the Allegheny tomorrow morning. Although of somewhat similar construction as that of the one launched some time ago, it is entirely different as to use. The one just completed will be used to carry the gravel and sand which has been raised from the river bed to the plant.

The phrase, "eat one's head off," was used as early as 1703.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—There's a men's barber shop on 57th street between Eighth and Ninth where you can't get a shave. . . . They only cut hair. . . . They do it so efficiently, that is, with respect to the contours of your head. . . . They say no two heads are shaped alike. . . . They say one type of haircut will make one man look like a million, but that the same cut will reduce somebody else to absurdity. . . . They take this very seriously. . . . The cost is 50 cents.

"AIN'T had a chance to cool in many a bright what with clambake all the way from the Land O' Darkness to the sunny southland. Though a little beat for dogs and saucers under the gums. Old Cab and all the cats are ready to send hep-cats and ickies both blowing their tops at the Strand. It would be just like home cooking if you and the Main Queen would lump us when you get a chance and say hello."

This lucid matter of fact little note is from Cab Calloway, and it is his way of saying that he and his Cotton Club boys open an engagement at the Strand theater on Broadway soon. Although "beat for dogs," which means he's tired and has circles under the eyes because of continuous engagements all over the country, from Harlem ("Land O' Darkness") to the Gulf, he and the hep-cats (boys in the band) are going to really GIVE, and they'd be pleased if you and the Main

"We ran short of motorcycles for our dispatch riders!"

MAMMY'S DAY.—Back last February a unit from Camp Pendleton established an outpost at Virginia Beach complete with different types of guns to repel an enemy invasion. Mrs. Sarah Grudupp, 73-year-old Negro cook, passed the men's tents one blustering evening, felt sorry for their lonely plight, and decided to make life easier for them.

Every single night since that cold February night she has bought from her $12 a week all sorts of food, cooked it and brought it out to the men at 8 p.m. on the dot. Her superb Southern cooking, together with her glorious sense of humor, helped to brighten up otherwise monotonous evenings of watchfulness for the men.

Then came May and Mother's Day. Aunt Sarah—as the men called Mrs. Grudupp—was picked up in a Bantam bug, brought into camp and honored in true soldier fashion. They showered her with presents (her favorite was a garrison belt), made her guest of honor at a big chicken dinner, brought out their guitarists and singers to entertain her, and wound up the day by taking her on a sight-seeing trip of the Camp in a bug.

That evening—and every evening since—Aunt Sarah has brought her basket of delicacies to the men in style. A battalion official order has assigned a truck in which to bring her food to the soldiers.

Virginia Beach is still talking about Mammy's Day.

WAR QUIZ

1. This silver eagle is worn by a colonel in the American Army. Does the insignia of a colonel in the Marines differ?

2. The Japs pushed hard in their campaign in Burma trying to finish the job before the monsoon came. Is a monsoon a drought, a calm, or a strong wind which brings heavy rain?

3. The Nazi government found it necessary to tell its people that Hitler's pet Storm Troopers were serving with the armed forces and that many had been killed. Was this due to a desire to show how brave they are, to prove they haven't got soft berths boxing the ears around, or to intimidate the United Nations?

Pupils of Russell Piano Studio Heard in Excellent Recital

An audience of parents and friends that taxed the capacity of the Philomel Club music room greeted the recital given by pupils of the Russell Piano Studios, Mrs. Allie Russell, teacher, and Miss Evelyn Samuelson, assistant. Numbers by the young musicians were given in an artistic manner that reflected creditably on their talents and the painstaking preparation by their instructors. Besides piano solos and two-piano selections, there was a number, "Dancing Dolls", done in costume by Millie McManus, Barbara and Norma Jean Pierce, drill in costume with large "v's" beautifully done on a flag, Nancy Jane Black, group of songs by Mrs. Anna Wilson, guest soprano, with accompaniment by Helen Eckardt Olson and Evelyn Samuelson, all in costume; novelty Hawaiian and Egyptian dances in costume by Dianne French, another guest, and a composition done entirely from memory by the rhythm orchestra. Besides those mentioned, the following young people appeared during the well prepared and well executed program: Maxine Ann Beebe, Patty Gibson, Rowell Hoff, Jimmy Hildum, Connie Samuelson, Rachel Kaebnick, Frank Shaner, Harry Conarro, Carolyn Johnson, Joyce Smith, Joann Langdon, Ruth Kaebnick, Richard McKillip, Joyce Beebe, Harriet Lind, Lois Johnson, Virginia Fitzgerald and Dorothy Munksgard.

Canadian Chic

THE name is "Alouette." It's typical, and so is the sprigged color-fast cotton in this spectator sports dress and matching bandana, of the independent, gay French native of Quebec. Field flowers of the Canadian province appear in the bright borders. Truman Bailey designed the fabric. He is the expert who goes every year, for fashion inspiration, to some spot where the natives still retain a fresh, distinctive, natural quality in their dress. This year he has done a whole collection of Quebec-inspired clothes.

IN CASE OF SNAKE BITE

BY PAUL BRAUNSCHWEIGER of the Mullen Drug Co.

That old expression—"in case of a snake bite"—is a jocular reference to the time-honored remedy used by our forefathers—something alcoholic.

There is a more scientific remedy, a more efficacious specific. Snake bite Virus can be obtained at modern pharmacies. The traveler who sets out for regions where snakes are known to be regular residents is advised to stock this virus in his first aid kit. Instructions are fully given in the accompanying literature.

Naturally, one's best resource in an emergency of this kind is the service of a doctor. Where a physician is quickly available, he should be obtained to administer the remedy.

 Twenty-four of the prisoners in the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., have enrolled in a college correspondence course.

It was the big show, the big debut, and Stoneham and the Eagles left a favorable impression upon over 200 fans last night as they presented Scene I, Act One, of the 1942 Sunset Baseball League program, and ended in a 3-3 stalemate.

But for a mutual weakness at the plate the teams offered a truly fine ball game, and it was not entirely the fault of weak hitters that more bingles weren't realized, but the fact that two crafty right-handers hooked up in a mound duel that stole the show.

Craig Bennett, for Stoneham, and Bob Baker, for the Eagles, were the principals in the duel that attracted the interests of all the fans right down to the last out, and they nearly matched each other pitch for pitch.

Baker gave up eight hits, Bennett nine, but Bennett passed only one man while Baker gave free tickets to five. On the other hand, Baker whiffed 15 batters while Bennett pushed a third strike past 13, but to even things again, Baker was the victim of three wild pitches while Bennett kept the horsehide under control all the way.

The Eagles did all their scoring in one inning, the second, and it looked for several frames thereafter as if that were to decide the ball game, but the Stoneham and jators began to come back with a run in the fifth, scored again in the seventh, and knotted the contest with a tally in the top half of the ninth.

"Sparky" Pollock singled into right field, went to second on an infield out, and scored in the second inning when Tony Notoro hit into left. Bill Brooks doubled, sending Notoro to third, and Baker singled to right scoring both, that being all in the scoring department for the Eagles.

The first Stoneham run came in the fifth via a single by Kent Reading who sent Dick Kifer home after the latter had singled and stolen second base. Prior to Kifer's hit, Harry Blume had hit into right field, but upon getting around to third base, was out trying to score on a passed ball. In the seventh, Craig Bennett, the mighty midget of a pitcher, found first base on an error, and scored after reaching third when Floyd Kifer hit a high bouncer just in front of the plate for an infield hit. Jim Harding was put on base by another error in the ninth, and made second on the same, it being an overthrow by Thirdbaseman Notoro to first base. Floyd Kifer then singled over Notoro's head into left field and Harding brought home the run that evened things.

Notoro walked and was peeled around to third base in the Eagles' half of the ninth, but Baker went down, shortstop to first, to end the game with darkness falling fast.

SPORTS SPATTERINGS

After losing ten in a row, the Pittsburgh Pirates are moving along again now. They outscored Philadelphia by only six runs, however, in their entire four-game series over the weekend, winning successive games by 6-5, 3-1, 5-4, 8-6. Either a case of not wasting their scores or else one of having a hard time getting them. Probably the latter, but those four in a row made up the longest win string the Buccos had known up to yesterday. Mort Cooper let the New York Giants down with no runs and only four hits in the nightcap of Sunday's double bill and turned in one of his neatest performances of the year for the St. Louis Cardinals. Guess the only way to stop those Brooklyn Dodgers is to put them in the American League—and then we wonder. When the race gets really under way for the individual batting championship in the Sunset Baseball League, keep your eye on Monk Murphy, State Hospital third baseman, who looks to be a good bet for this sprig of laurel. He's a trusty hitter, nearly always good for a single, even in a clutch. We say nearly always without exaggeration, because in three games to date he boasts an average of .461, against Asheville, Corry and the Jamestown Spiders, and he went hitless at Corry—an off night, we guess.

Max Schmeling, one-time heavyweight champion of the world, will defend his European title in September against Walter Neusel, according to Italian broadcasts from Rome yesterday. The September bout will be Schmeling's first since the battle of Crete, in which he participated as a parachute soldier and was wounded. We might add that those wounds were nothing, though, compared to the ones Joe Louis inflicted upon him. One of the best looking prospects around second base to come up in the area this season is Milt Dahler. The newcomer to the State Hospital ball club didn't do much hitting the first couple of games, but he fielded his position very well. Against the Jamestown Spiders, he clouted a pair of hits in three times at bat to show that his eye is getting better at the plate. A month or so and "Rabbit" Swanson will have a strong link at the keystone sack. Harold Brown plays at shortstop and together these kids had oughta build up a double play combination. The Forgers haven't been as busy, on the ball field, as have the Hospital youngsters in the past week and this advantage may make tomorrow night's Sunset League session something extra. Errors whipped the Swansonsmen the first time, such as Brownie dropping a fly ball in the infield, the first time in a long while he's done anything like that, and then Myron Jewell's miff of a perfect double play ball a few moments later. But, regardless of tomorrow night's outcome, this game shapes up as a natural.

Tadition Broken As Burgess Opens Sunset Ball Loop

That famous battery, Steber and Lowrey, performed again last night, but tradition was broken as Lowrey cooked up the old double-cross on his pitcher to the surprise of everyone.

Having experienced too many times the risky business of attempting to catch the mayor's high, hard one, Lowrey unveiled over to the Stoneham dugout before the official toss, and gave orders to Leadoff Hitter Vic Huffman to bunt the ball.

That's what Huffman did, and Lowrey expressed satisfaction with a wide smile. The Burgess hardly knew what to do, he was so surprised to think the season's first hit was made of himself.

The ball game started immediately after and completely outstayed a crowd of about 250 over the nine inning route.

HOSPITAL IN LOOP FRACAS WITH FORGE

After a superb show last night presented for the fans' approval by the Eagles and Stoneham in the Sunset Baseball League, the National Forge and State Hospital aggregations will have to be at their best tomorrow evening as they open their respective league campaigns against each other.

Last night's contest was a thriller, dominated by good baseball all the way, and though both outfits were made up majorally of youngsters, the game they played was alert and heady ball from start to finish. It registered with the crowd and it's the kind of contest that will bring fans back for more.

Therefore tomorrow evening's set-to-between the Forge and Hospital shapes up into being a duplicate performance. Last year the Hospital tied the Forge once and lost once to them, while they dropped a warmup game earlier this season.

But the chips will be down tomorrow evening and past performance won't count too much as both put up a fight to grab an early lead in the Sunset loop.

Just who will do the pitching for the two teams tomorrow is uncertain at the present time, but lineups and batteries will be known in time for tomorrow's edition.

League officials, pleased with opening night attendance, look for an even larger crowd tomorrow night.

Salvage Committee Solicits Aid of Fishermen in County

An urgent request to the trout and bass fishermen of Warren County to act as "spotters" in their trips through the county was made today by B. S. Knabenshue, co-chairman of the Warren County Salvage Committee.

Trout fishermen especially, it is felt, reach the most remote parts of the county. In many of these sections are abandoned oil leases or abandoned farms which very few people see from one year's end to the next. On many of these leases and farms, the Salvage Committee believes, will be found a considerable amount of scrap iron and other salvage material which can be rescued from disuse and poured into the war against the Axis.

The committee is making a strong plea that every fisherman who takes to the streams during the ensuing weeks keep his eyes open for just such places and just such material. He should make as accurate an estimate as possible of what is available, either by weight or by listing the articles with a pencil. All he has to do when he returns to town is to call Salvage Headquarters at 3048 and report his find. They will do the rest.

Struthers-Wells realized little trouble in racking up a 14-6 decision last night over the Sons of Italy in a City Softball League game played on the west side diamond.

Bonavita did the mound chores and scattered nine hits while his mates pounded Vito Greto for 15 runs and topped it all with a seven-run outburst in the second inning.

Sunday afternoon the Recreation Center, entrants in the same league, ran their win string to six in a row for the season, playing a doubleheader and winning both games from the Liberty A. C. of Jamestown, N. Y.

Last night's box score:

 Sons of Italy 041 000 001 6 9 4

WOOD GOES TO WAR

Winning a war is the nation's big job today. America's forests, like America's people, are all-out for national defense. Lumber for construction of barracks and other buildings; timber and wood products for ships and planes; and the many by-products of the forest such as paper, plastics, and wood cellulose, are just a few examples of the thousands of ways in which wood goes to war.

Much of the vital production rolling off assembly lines is dependent on American forests. To keep production rolling will make a heavy drain on these forest resources. To offset this drain, the public must take steps to insure its forests full protection against their greatest enemies: fire, disease, and wasteful, unregulated exploitation.

PHELPS AND GORDON LEAD IN AVERAGES

New York, June 9.—(AP)—The American League has been having a two-man race for batting honors almost since the opening of the season and now the National League is getting some of the same.

Pete Reiser, last year's batting champion in the senior circuit, has been sprinting during the last week and today had a lustrous .365 average, close on the heels of Gordon (Rabe) Phelps, Pittsburgh catcher. Phelps has been out of action because of a spiked heel and made his first appearances in the Pirates lineup in more than a week on Sunday. He was called on to pinch-hit twice and made one hit to inflate his average to .375.

On the same day Reiser made six hits.

Joe Gordon of the New York Yankees, riding the crest of a 25-game batting streak, still is the American League leader with .388, thirteen points ahead of Bobby Doerr of the Boston Red Sox.

The Yankees and Red Sox between them, held seven places among the top ten hitters in their league. Four Dodgers were among the National League leaders, but otherwise the places were well distributed with the tenth man dropping below .300 for the first time this season.

Chapter 24
 Letter From Laura

THE next two days were the longest two days Kathleen Vaughan had ever spent. It seemed to her that Wednesday would never arrive—and with it her part in "Goodbye, Honey Chile." But the day came eventually, and Kathleen lost no time jumping in to her Uncle Frank's roadster and driving out to Ye Old Barn Drama House.

Fred was rehearsing the company when she arrived. She slipped into a rear seat and watched the activities upon the stage. They fascinated her. And to think, soon she would be up there rehearsing! It was too wonderful for words! After all this time, she was at last to have a part and—

"Does Ruby have to stand directly in front of me in order to speak her lines?" Paul said angrily.

"One does usually stand in front of a person to speak," said Fred.

"Oh, is that so?" said Paul.

"Then the audience isn't supposed to see me at all—is that it?"

I don't think it's particularly important that it does," said Fred.

"Not during this scene. After all, what Ruby's saying to you is what's really important."

Kathleen, disturbed by the things said on the stage, and the tones used, felt a moment of dread. But she fought it off. She must remember about Paul's full face and profile—must remember when she flung herself in his arms, not to cover him up too much. If she remembered that, and a lot of other things, she had learned from watching rehearsals, she ought to get along splendidly.

Presently Fred called a day. He jumped down from the stage, and mopped his brow. He saw Kathleen, and came over to her.

"Hello!" he said. "How about driving me out to Miss Camilla's? Now that I know when we'll need the things for the Civil War play, I'd like to let her know."

"Right now, you mean—today?" said Kathleen.

"Yes. Have you got a date or something?"

"Oh, no. I came out for my part."

Ruby and Paul joined them.

The Part

"I'M GLAD we're all together," said Paul. "You see, Kathleen, Ruby and I sort of run things, and since Fred directs, and you're to have a more or less important scene, we ought to have a conference."

Kathleen smiled. "Yes, Paul," she said, trying to keep the excitement out of her voice.

"Everyone says," Paul went on, "that summer theatres make a mess of trying out new plays, and we want to prove them wrong. In 'Goodbye, Honey Chile' we have an opportunity to do this."

Kathleen's eyes widened. "Not really?"

"Yes, really, my child," said Fred, bored. "Get on with what you want to say, Paul. I've got to drive out and see about that furniture I told you about."

"Let's see, where was I?" said Paul.

"You were out to prove everybody wrong about summer theatres," said Ruby.

"Oh, yes, so I was," Paul smiled at Kathleen. "Ruby and I have quite a bit invested in this venture, and if we can pull on a play that goes over big, it will mean a lot to us in our profession. We might get worthwhile offers from Broadway producers, and—well, things would pick up for us both."

"Why are you telling Kathleen all this?" Fred cut in. "Get to the point, if there is one."

"I'm trying to impress upon her how important this play really is to us all," said Paul.

And how magnanimous you've been to permit her to play in it," said Fred. "Is that it?"

"Of course it isn't. Only I didn't want anything to happen to upset matters—as they did last summer. Remember the little state-struck girl in Westport—and you—and Laura?"

"My memory is quite all right," said Paul. "But that was last summer."

UNCLE EF

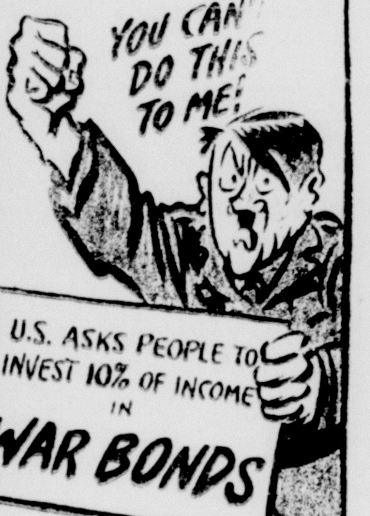

About all we can say is that it took the Japs longer to conquer the Philippines than it took Dewey when he knocked out the Spaniards. But it does seem to carry a little lesson to the broad and general effect that unless a country is ready and prepared to successfully defend outlying possessions against any and all comers, it might as well not have them.
